

Introduction to The Planets Speak

The planets, in accord with the axiom 'as above, so below', are archetypal energies in the cosmos of the psyche, as well as being physical bodies in space. Each planet has a range of powers and the energetic force of a god, as indeed they were imagined to be by the ancients. Taken together, the qualities they embody and the truths they speak cover all the typical themes and concerns of a human life. Read with an open mind and heart they will speak to your soul and offer insights into your life lessons and blessings.

Pay special attention to the planet that rules your Sun sign as it holds particular sway over your character and destiny.

In an individual chart, planets are also linked together as lifelong partners in accord with the planetary pattern occurring at birth. Such linkages, or 'aspects' as astrologers call them, tell the story of our individual genius and reveal the psycho-dynamics of personality that define character and motivate personal growth. To find out which planets are in aspect in your own chart you can order a computer report by email request.

The birth pattern is only half the story however, for the planets continue to move in their cyclic orbits in the sky over the course of a lifetime. As they do so, each planetary god will assume centre stage at key points in our lives. To determine which planets are currently occupying centre stage in your life, either read all the scripts and discern for yourself which planetary gods now speak to you most directly. or submit an email order for a planetary transit report.

Finally, I suggest reading these scripts aloud as a method of invoking the powers of the planets to assist you to grow into the person you were born to be.

SUN

I am the call of destiny heard from within
Calling on you to become yourself
To become all you can be
To fulfil your potential, realize yourself

What more can you give than this?
And give generously
Sing your song, shine your light
Your individual flowering fulfils the greater design

Stand alone if that must be
Don't be put off by others envy or your own self doubt
Don't play small, heed the call
Be yourself, you know you must
Authentic, special, unique

If you refuse destiny's call there is a price to pay
I will curse you with the torment of an unlived self
Feelings of failure, guilt and remorse
Knowing you could be, should be, so much more

What a waste, a disgrace to the self
Wake up to your self!
Wake up and roar!
You're a lion not a sheep

You are a creator
The creator of your own life
And this, is the great work of art

URANUS

I'm different, one of a kind
The only planet that spins on its side
Outsider, rebel, eccentric maybe
Inventive, bizarre, some say crazy
But 'crazy' by what standard or definition I must ask
And from whom do those who would so label me derive their authority?

I recognize and obey no authority other than my own

I'm my own person
I live my life in accord with the truth as I see it
I cannot, will not, compromise on that

I never follow, I cannot follow
I create my path as I go, spontaneously, just so
If others follow, that is entirely their own affair

My role in society
Is to surprise, enlighten, challenge and provoke
To think outside the square
Shake up the status quo
Invent, create and innovate
Experiment with alternative ways of living
Explore altered states of consciousness
Spark rebellion, revolution, and ultimately
Spiritual liberation

These are my rallying cries:

'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity' – [French Revolution]
'Turn on, Tune in, Drop out' – [Timothy Leary]
'Think globally, Act locally' – [Greenpeace?]
'Be a light unto yourself' – [Buddha]

My revelations are shattering
My methods unpredictable
My energy shocking

What to do?

I am as I am, and I do as I must
